Song for Youth

Come! Let us pledge our faith to one another,
Sharing the joy of work and dance and song.
Brother shall clasp the friendly hand of brother,
Building a world free, beautiful, and strong.

Grant us the love that cannot soil or sever;
Grant us the soul that nothing daunts or mars.
Then standing bravely, boy and girl together,
Let us march, singing, forward to the stars.

Mrs. R. T. McKenzie.

PREFACE

With the war over and our thoughts turning from it to things of peace, with the return of our men with their new ideas from the corners of the world, this year has been a great change from the past three. We have still written term papers, seniors have still written their seminars, it rained on May Day, and the Muscoljuan has come out late again, but still the year has been different. We have not spent so much time thinking about ration points and tires and gas. We have thought of the UNO, the Russian invasion of Iran, the millions of those in Europe who will go without enough food, the WSSF-Dorm Drive and of a new building on campus in the near future. We have turned to the world's problems of reconstruction that follow every war and in our rebuilding will not rest at merely restoring. We must go beyond it to better things. With the war over we have straightened our shoulders and put them to the tasks of peace.

MISS IRENE HORNER

With a great deal of pride and pleasure, we dedicate the 1946 Muscoljuan to Miss Horner, who has helped us as a faculty adviser, an understanding teacher, and a source of inspiration. She knows and has helped us to share "the joy of work and dance and song"; her wide interests and active mind go together to make a pleasing personality which calls forth our respect and warms our hearts . . . .

Under the elm tree . . . . .

Miss Horner proves her musical ability at May Day practice.

Under the wise guidance of the administration and faculty, Muskingum and its students strive ever toward a better way of life.

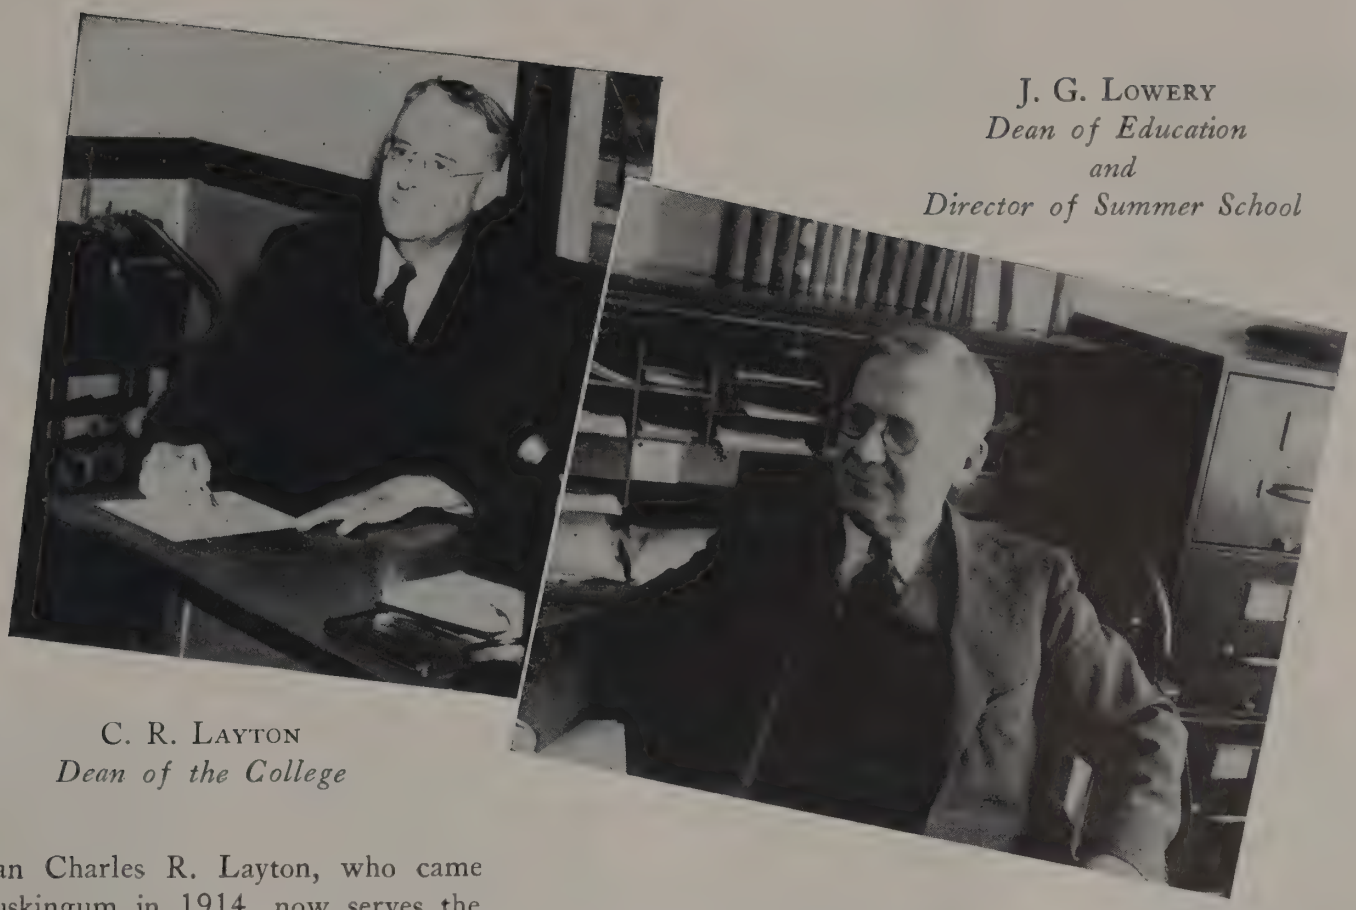
Administration and Faculty

DR. ROBERT N. MONTGOMERY

Since 1932, Dr. Robert N. Montgomery has been Muskingum's president. A Muskingum graduate himself, "Doctor Bob" has had the opportunity to be in touch constantly with the school's needs, its problems and its aims. His understanding of people and his high ideals have made him well suited to his task of fulfilling the needs, solving the problems and upholding the aims.

J. KNOX MONTGOMERY, JR.

Serving hand-in-glove with "Doc Bob" is his brother, J. Knox Montgomery, who has been the college's vice-president since 1931. Also a Muskingum graduate, he takes care of the business affairs of the college.



J. G. Lowery
Dean of Education and
Director of Summer School

C. R. Layton
Dean of the College

Dean Charles R. Layton, who came to Muskingum in 1914, now serves the college as its Dean and as head of the speech department. Through his many years of service, Dean Layton has watched the college grow and has been responsible for turning out many fine speakers from his department. He is now doing work at the University of Michigan on his doctor's degree.

Serving Muskingum for many years as mentor of the education department, Dean John Glenn Lowery joined the faculty in 1908. Chiefly interested in the education of those who will enter the teaching profession, Dean Lowery has done much additional graduate study himself and received his LL.D. degree in 1939.

The men of Muskingum have found a good friend and an understanding counsellor in their dean, Mr. James M. Samuell. He joined the faculty in 1942, but soon left for the armed services. He returned second semester of this year to resume his duties as dean of men and instructor in student counselling.

J. M. Samuell
Dean of Men

Cora I. Orr
Dean of Women

An important cog in the wheel of women's activities is Miss Cora I. Orr, dean of women and associate professor of education. Since she came to the campus in 1925, Miss Orr has had the responsibility of regulating women's affairs on campus. She also conducts training classes for the counsellors at the dormitory and acts in an advisory capacity to the W.A.L. Board and the Y.W.C.A.

The outstanding social event of the year for the class was a dinner party held at the Cambridge Country Club last fall. This spring the class really cut loose and gave an exceptional faculty take-off. Harold Shirakawa was president of the group; Peg Weir, vice-president; Barbara Armstrong, secretary, and Amy Tarr, treasurer.

The Class of '47 was headed by Dick Lunan this year and really did some outstanding things. Sejuna, the biggest event of the year, was again held in the Men's Gym—the first formal to be held there in three years. Using the theme "Carousel," with horses predominating as decorations, the juniors really went all out to entertain the seniors. At this time the class beauty queen, Beverly Cooke, was crowned.

The return of several veterans and the coming of a number of transfer students, swelled the numbers of the class till there are now 118 members in the class. In addition to Dick Lunan as president, Bill Oshima is vice-president, Sue McCray is secretary, and Smoky Stoner is treasurer.

Completing the second lap on the four year trek to seniordom, the class of 1948 finished its sophomore year with flying colors. Serving the class as its officers were Al Warren as president, Frank Erwin who acted as vice-president, Martha Barden acting in the capacity of secretary, and Dorothy Bichsel took care of the class's money as treasurer.

Transforming the lounge into a preview of spring, the Soph Swirl was the outstanding event of the class's year. Using the theme of "March Winds," the class-chosen queen and her attendants reigned over the festivities, which took place in the Lounge on March 26. Mary Kelly was queen and she was attended by Martha Barden and Betsy Bovard.

The class contributed many mermaids to the aquacade and its queen, Betsy Bovard, was a sophomore. Many members of the class also participated in the two one-act plays presented in January as the culmination of the freshman-sophomore dramatics laboratories.

On September 12, 1945, more than 250 high school graduates enrolled in Muskingum College as their first step along the road to college graduation. The entrance of an unusually large class of girls led to an overflow of the dormitory centers and a necessary utilization of the Muskingum House Hotel for a dorm and of several off-campus houses.

A decided interest in dramatics, largely on the part of the freshman class, led to a demand for the establishment of freshman-sophomore acting laboratories and the subsequent production of two one-act plays early in January.

Early in the year, the class chose as its officers Mark Hall, president; Art Johnstone, vice-president; Betty Ellis, secretary, and Eula Persons, treasurer. The results of a later and different type of election showed Sally Patterson as the freshmen's choice for beauty queen, with Ruth Adams and Sally Sutton as attendants. They reigned over "Nani Mahina" (beautiful moonlight) which was the Hawaiian theme used for the freshman dance, held in the lounge on March 15. The "Frosh" have had a big year and have proved themselves ready to progress to the elevated rank of sophomore.

Homecoming, 1945! "Spirit of Atomic Power" was announced by co-chairmen Gene McIlvaine and Bob Skelley as the theme. Friday evening students and alumni rallied in the chapel to cheer the all-college variety show. At this time Queen Gwen Moore and Attendants Harriet Emmerling and Janet McDowell were presented with rose corsages. Doc Bob persisted in his habit of congratulating each with a kiss. Saturday proved to be cold and windy, but parents, alumni, students and friends continued to crowd the stadium gates. They watched the float parade glide around the gridiron and enthusiastically cheered for their favorite. As the band finished playing the last notes of The Star Spangled Banner, Muskingum's football team ran on to the field. When they left the gridiron for the last time that day they left behind them a record. The Muskies had been victorious over Kenyon by a score of 66-0 . . . the highest score in twenty-three years of Muskingum's football career. The homecoming dance Saturday drew the first post-war homecoming to a delightful close.

Come to the beautiful Zebra Room! See the most spectacular Sejuna ever put on by the class of 1946!

COACHES

Coaches Mariner and Sherman are the two men who carry the greatest part of coaching Muskingum's major sports. Coach Sherman, who took up the job of head football coach and athletic instructor last fall, did a terrific job of turning out a first-rate team. Also, on the side, he found time to work with the track team and to help Coach Mariner with the basketball squad. However Coach Sherman does not stop at teaching sports and coaching teams, he attempts to build strong character and instil sportsmanship in the men he works with.

Coach Mariner, our other mainstay of the coaching staff, includes in his many duties the teaching of classes, coaching basketball and tennis, and assisting Ed in football. "Mac," as he is known to the boys, is very well-liked and respected by his players and he has a great influence on them in later years.

Not to be forgotten is the one and only Bill Moore, who spends his time between Muskingum and West Point. Bill arrives at Muskingum in time to handle the baseball squad, then disappears for another year. However, his stay here is always short and sweet. He stays only long enough to turn out a good baseball team and to get to know all the fellows on campus, then he is gone in body, but his humor remains here.

In his first year as head football coach at Muskingum, Coach "Ed" Sherman began the season with a question mark in his mind as to what the future would bring. With only three lettermen back from the previous season, he had to shape his starting eleven mostly around freshman material. The result: six wins, one tie, and one loss: the best civilian record compiled by a college in Ohio: widespread recognition by being rated among the top five teams in the lower flight of small college teams in the country by United Features Syndicate sports editor.

Football

Much credit for this successful season goes to assistant coaches "Mac" Mariner and "Red" Smith, who helped Ed work out his strategy and defensive play for each game.

Led by their fullback and captain, Russ Swank, who was chosen for the All-Ohio second team, the "Fighting Muskies" amassed the total of 199 points in eight games, with two of the games resulting in zero marks for the Muskies. Chuck Green and Wilmer Winnett were the fast, speedy backs who were continually gaining yardage for the squad. Jim Allen, veteran from the 1943 squad, was the quarterback and ball handler on all T-Formation plays. The line, though light in weight was a fast, hard charging machine on both offense and defense. Stalwarts such as Patterson, Graham, Madgwick, Vickers, Mattingly and Bouman, stood the brunt of the attack for the Muskies' fast moving offense as they cut team after team apart.

The highlight of the season was the homecoming game when 2,500 fans came out to watch the Muskies roll over the hapless Kenyon squad 66-0 for a new scoring record in McConagha Stadium.

Coach "Mac" Mariner, just out of the Navy, took up his reins as head basketball coach of the Muskies as Muskingum entered its first peacetime schedule in four years. With a good nucleus of returning lettermen to work with, Mariner produced a team that had its ups and downs all year, coming out with a season record of 11 wins and 8 defeats. The highlight of the season was when the Muskies knocked the undefeated Otterbein from the Ohio Conference one week and then the following week knocked Wittenberg out of the lead.

The Muskies were sparked offensively by their high scoring ace, Larry Kukura, who was chosen first string All-Ohio. Captain "Red" Davis was the man who carried the brunt of defensive play along with Bonvechio, Patterson and Sayre.

The new semester brought in four new players who greatly strengthened the squad. George Valentine will long be remembered for his fast, shifty, floor work. Big Bill Ruby added the only height to the squad. Jim Allen, Alex McKinley, and Ed Fischer were capable replacements for the starting five.

The flash of thin-clad figures on the track: the sun glistening on polished wood and metal shafts; and the gyrating forms in one corner of the field were evidence that Muskingum was welcoming track back to its field for the first time in four years. The squad is new and inexperienced, but under the watchful eyes of Coach Sherman the men are shaping up and are gunning for the Ohio Conference Meet early in June.

The early season point getters are Dave Copeland, spring expert; George Valentine, who specializes in the two-mile run; Gene Ewing, the high and low hurdler; Dick Krauss the high jumping specialist, even with a trick knee; and many more who are trying to bring track back to Muskingum at its best.

In their first meet of the season, Muskingum ran wild over Kenyon and Marietta in a triangular meet. But in the second meet the Muskie trackmen were just edged out by a more experienced Denison University squad.

After taking leave of absence from his duties at West Point, Coach Bill Moore came back to Muskingum to take over the job of coaching the 1945 edition of the Muskingum College baseball teams. With no lettermen to work with he built a squad which started out to be shaky but ended up by winning its last four games. The season record was seven wins and four losses, two of these losses were to the powerful Ohio U. nine.

The key men in the infield who held the team together, were Russ Gust, the field captain, and little Kinji Hiramoto, who was always making impossible stops. Dick Gilmore, the man behind the mask, was the brains for the pitchers, and one of the most capable players on the team, not only playing flawless ball, but keeping his batting average way above .325. Bill Henschel and Larry Kukura handled the mound duties for the Muskies and turned in some excellent performances. In the outfield "Tommy" Thompson, Dick Krauss, and Bob Heide were the trio that covered the pasture.

The Muskies again put a team on the clay courts for the first time in four years. Fifteen men answered the call of "Mac" Mariner and the warm weather. With the return of several World War II veterans the Muskies almost hit the caliber of the pre-war teams. Headed by Riordon and Nolin the "netters" are having a very successful season. Backing these two were Bill Custer, Leroy Nelson, a veteran, Marshall Sayre, Bill Oshima and Bob Parker. Two of the best matches were the two victories over Capital. Single victories over Denison and Wooster, two of Muskingum's bitterest rivals, made it look good for the "Fighting Muskies." So far the Muskies have lost only to Oberlin, which was the first match of the season. The "racket-wielders" are working hard so that they can, perhaps, enter the Ohio Conference Meet late in May. Facing the Muskies, for the remainder of the season, are some tough matches with Ohio Conference teams. If the team keeps the stride they are hitting now, it is without a doubt that they will be on the long end of the count when the season closes.

Using "Christ is the Answer" as its motto, the Y. W. C. A. has completed another successful year as Muskingum's outstanding women's organization. Membership is open to all those who find spending the hour between 7:00 and 8:00 on Wednesday evening in the Y. W. room in Brown Chapel profitable to them.

The Y. W. C. A. is responsible for Big Sisters who are assigned to girls of the incoming freshman class to help them become adjusted to college life. One of the organization's most impressive ceremonies is the candle-light service to which Big Sisters escort their Little Sisters so that they may learn of the high ideals of the Y. W. and have an opportunity to become members.

The traditional freshman cabinet was conducted in a different way this year. In past years, a freshman girl was elected from each committee to serve with the committee chairman for the entire year. This year, three separate cabinets were chosen, with each cabinet to function for one-third of the school year.

Every girl who wishes to has the opportunity to join one of the Y. W.'s many committees and thus have a chance to serve the school, the community and her sister Y. W. members.

Y. W. C. A.

Y.M.C.A.

The development of the spiritual and social life of its members has always been the high aim of the Y. M. C. A. It has set up Christian ideals and strives to help in their fulfillment. Each year all the fellows in the group contribute one dollar to the Scholarship Fund. This year there was money enough for two scholarships, which were awarded to Kenny Shelly and Harold Shirakawa.

The traditional Pow-wow, the Mid-Year Frolic, and the Apple Blossom Festival were some activities the Y. M. carried out this year in addition to weekly meetings.

Return of the Alpha Sigma Mu to an active part in campus life this year, found a group interested in helping all those who are planning to enter the ministry. Activities included discussion with visiting ministers and a monthly meeting at which various problems relating to ministry were discussed. This was under the leadership of President Bob Jones.

GOSPEL TEAM

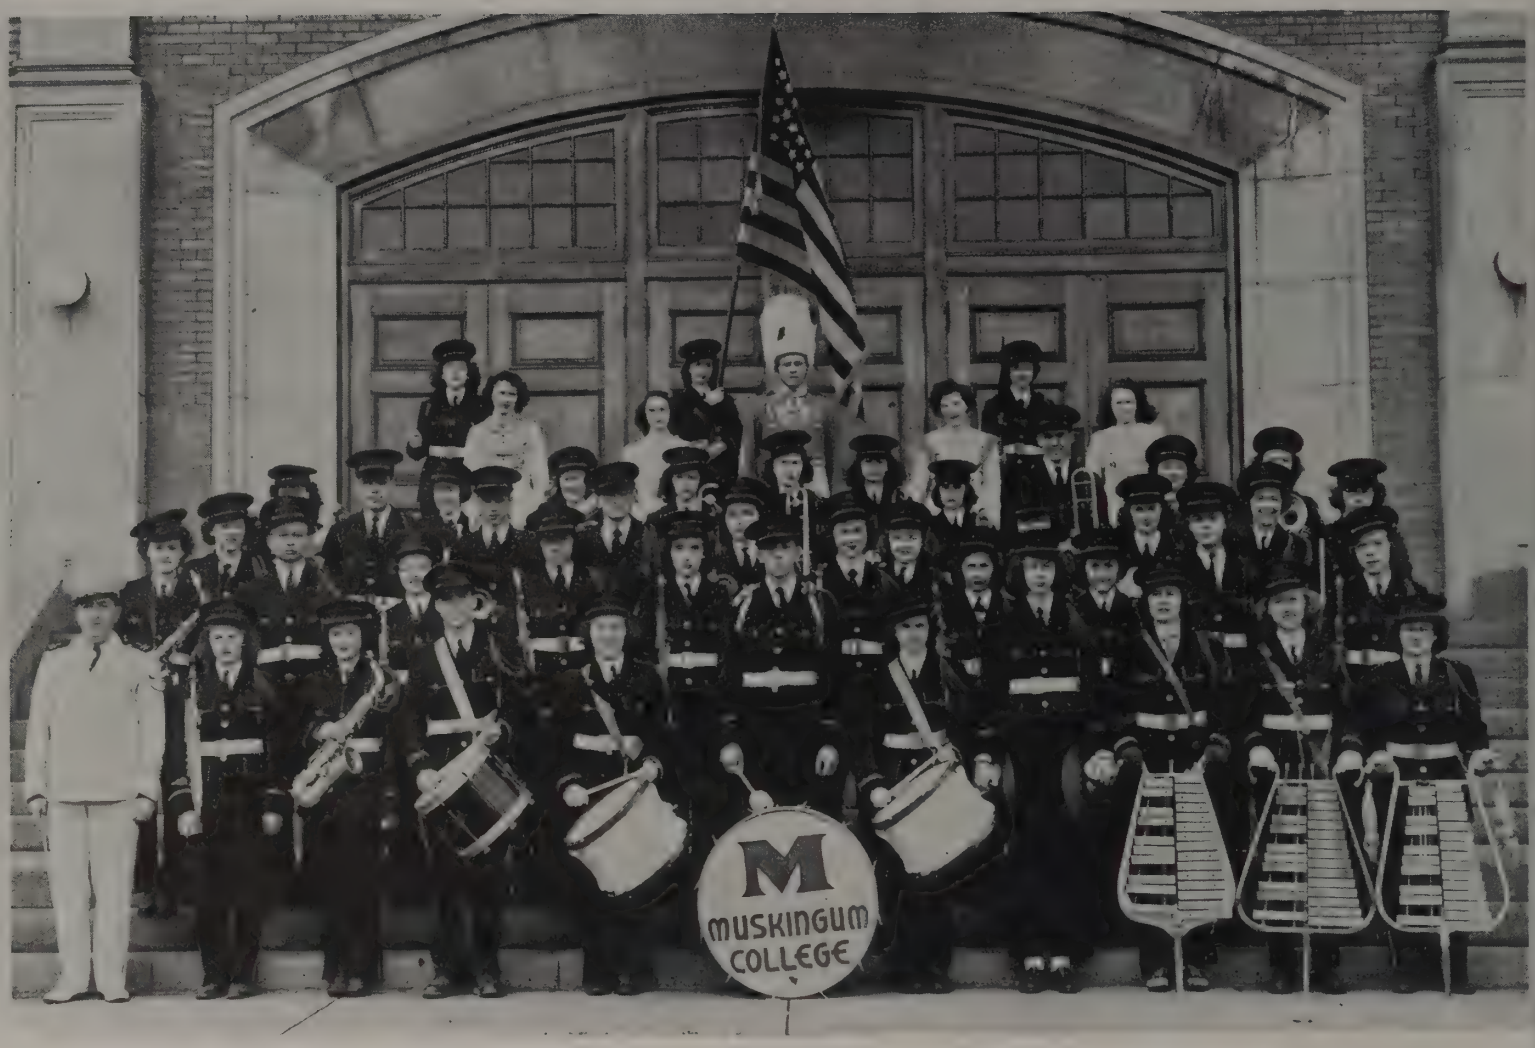
The Gospel Teams are under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. and are open to anyone interested. These Christian men and women prepare and conduct their own services for the neighboring churches. This work not only performs a real service to the churches but also provides valuable experience for those who participate in it.

Thirty-five freshman and sophomore women blend voices to make up the College Women's Glee Club. Mrs. Virginia Person capably directs this group, which practices twice a week at three-thirty. The Glee Club sang several times on Muskingum's radio show, "Half Time", and appeared at the Christmas vespers. In April the group finished their year by presenting a concert in Brown Chapel, including in the program a number of sacred songs and the unusual "Prelude for Women's Voices" by William Schumann.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Muskingum Choral Society, under the direction of Professor John H. Bloom, is open to any student or faculty member who is interested in singing. The entire college looks forward to its yearly production of "The Messiah", and this year's was exceptional. The spring performance this year was an Easter program.

CHORAL



The Muskingum College Marching Band stepped out in full swing this fall with about sixty-five members. Mr. Fair, director, led the band through a variety of fancy figures during the football season with the grand finale at the Homecoming game. The concert band picked up the tempo at the end of football season and began to work on their spring concert, which was presented early in April.

The Art Club is open to those who show special talent in art. It provides opportunity for students interested in art to do some extra work outside of class and gives them a chance to express their originality in the different fields of art. Making and selling pennants at the Homecoming Game, helping with the Christmas Bazaar, making posters, and doing other creative work for campus activities were just a few of the accomplishments of these art-minded people.

MUSKINGU PLAYERS

The Muskingum Players work to promote a deeper interest in the production and appreciation of dramatics. They endeavor to bring outstanding personalities in the field of dramatics to our campus. The Home Economics Club, which has been quite active this year, is for girls who are majoring or minoring in Home Ec. or are interested in it. This club attempts to broaden the interests of its members by presenting a wide variety of programs at its meetings. Displays of products such as silver and aluminum ware were shown and discussed and talks were given by faculty members of other departments in the college, ranging all the way from art to modern languages.

The club's project for the year was entertaining the needy children of the community at a Christmas party held in the Home Management House for them. Dorothy Brown was the leader of the group and Miss Lydia Steele was adviser.

Its purpose is to promote fellowship and to help prepare elementary education students for their future jobs as elementary teachers. The A.C.E. Democracy at Muskingum is realized through the Student Council, the school's student government body. This system of student government allows the students to have a large share of the responsibility in many activities. Another one of its main purposes is to control student conduct and cooperate with the faculty on matters of administration. It also tries to keep all the organizations on the campus functioning properly and to carry out the wishes of the student body as they are expressed in the student forums which are held once each month in chapel.

One of the accomplishments of this year's Council, under the able leadership of Walt Coats, was the reorganization of the Social Committee. It also devised a new way to elect Cheerleaders and investigated the possibility of getting an Infirmary along with all the routine matters the Council must carry out.

The Women's Activities League is the governing body for women on Muskingum's campus. Each girl is automatically a member. The purpose of this organization is to develop each girl into a well-rounded, intelligent woman. Its most important activities are the organization and functioning of the counselling system, the Judiciary Board, and the House Governing Committee. It sponsors such events as the Lantern parade, Winter tea, Christmas bazaar, Christmas sing, the women's chapel programs, and the Senior Women's Memorial. This year the W.A.L. also sponsored the Fletcher dances.

The Women's Athletic Association caters to the laughing girls who liven the gym, hockey field, tennis courts, and golf course with their charms. One hundred points, earned in sports, is all that is necessary to become a member of this organization. The regular activities of W.A.A. include the inter-mural sports, mixed swims, sport nights, high school play day, the Aquacade, and May Day. In addition, this year, it sent a basketball team to Columbus, invited Denison here for a sport day and appointed two representatives to attend the convention of the Athletic Federation of Ohio College Women.

PHILETHIA CLUB

The Philethia Club was organized in 1942 as the Women's Independent Association with the purpose of uniting the independent women on campus more closely. It took on the name Philethia last year and the girls moved into their house on Montgomery Blvd. This organization is open to all independent women in the college. Sigma Alpha Iota is a national musical honorary society for women. Good musicians who are music majors or minors with an average grade point ratio of 2.50 are eligible for membership. Among this year's activities were a Freshman tea in the fall, sponsoring record listening hours daily, a Dorm musical in cooperation with Phi Mu Alpha. Four members of the local group went to the Detroit Province Prale in the fall.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

PHI MU ALPHA

The national music honorary for men showed an increase in number this year, their main purpose being the increase of interest in the field of music. The main activity of the year was presenting the Musical in the Dormitory with the S.A.I. Mr. Bloom acted as sponsor with William Gordon serving as president.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

Sigma Tau Delta is the national literary society for Muskingum students. Its aims are to promote the reading and writing of better literature and it is open to those students who have a 2.75 average, a B average in English, and a talent for writing. Some of the activities of this organization for this year were putting out the razz issue of the B. and M., a spring recital, sponsoring a Freshman literary contest, and the publication of "Bubble Work". Outside of these local activities the members submit works to the "Rectangle" which is the national magazine of Sigma Tau Delta.

PI GAMMA MU

Pi Gamma Mu here at Muskingum is a branch of the Ohio Gamma chapter. It is a Social Science Honorary for students interested in this field. Membership is by invitation and is based on outstanding work in social science. The general topic for discussion this year was "Living in the Post-War World". Papers on the physical, industrial, social and political aspects of the subject were prepared by the members to be read at the meetings. The four program meetings were climaxed by a dinner in the spring.

Muskingum's Zeta chapter of Cwens, national honorary for sophomore women, was small in number this year but made up for the scarcity by its activities. The most impressive event of the year was a chapel program on April 29 when the active Cwens in their uniforms of gray blazer suits with scarlet blouses extended the gift of kinship to 15 freshman women. Girls are chosen for Cwens on the basis of scholastic achievement, character, promise of leadership, and participation in extra-curricular activities.

With Mrs. Robert N. Montgomery as adviser, the group found the Manse an ever-ready place for meetings. Marion Short and Rosella Hutchison were junior and senior advisers respectively. Carol Bower, vice-president, acted as president of the group until Pat McCann returned second semester to resume her duties as president.

Senior Women's Honorary was founded in 1936 and was organized to give some recognition to outstanding senior women. The members of this group meet every two weeks and discuss campus affairs in an effort to improve campus life. The membership is limited to eight and each spring the women who have been members during the school year tap those junior women whom they feel will best carry forward the purpose of the organization.

Each year, in a special chapel program, the O.O.O.O. taps its new members from the outstanding junior, senior and faculty men. This is the highest honor Muskingum can bestow upon its men. Membership is based on promise, achievement, and character. The purpose of this organization is to inspire greater leadership and to carry on the traditions and ideals of Muskingum College.

Sylvia Poast

This year with Sylvia Poast holding down the swivel chair and Smoky Stoner clutching the money bags, the B and M brought us the campus news again. Along with this we got news of the latest happenings in New Concord and a very interesting series of feature articles on faculty members and students who have had uncommon experiences during the war and previously. A number of articles on the hobbies the students ride and oddities of campus were also presented. The B and M really did a grand job of bringing us all the news and putting it up so we'd want to read it.

MUSCOLJEAN

These pictures, the one at the Dorm by Rick Burnett, and the one of the four girls by Bobbie Mitchell, were winners of the photography contest. Judges were L. C. Knight and T. M. Jones.

Once again we tried to get the Muscoljuan out on time, and once more we failed. There was practically no difficulty caused by shortages, mostly because we were very lucky every time we needed something. But the railroads picked the wrong week to strike, so that our engravings waited in Chicago while the printer waited in Columbus. . . . We're sorry it's late and hope that you like it.

The Albans this year were under the capable leadership of Harold Shirakawa and were sponsored by Hank Evans. The year's activities showed their interest in social development with several parties, the first open-house in six years, a spring serenade, and a winning booth at the Winter Carnival. The physical side of the Albans was not neglected, for many of the fellows were out for major sports and the remaining ones participated in intramurals. They also took active part in other extra-curricular activities. The entire program showed them ever striving to reach their goal of wholesome Christian living.

Founded in 1914, the F. A. D. Club has since lived under the symbol of the owl in true companionship. This year, with Peggy Forrest as president, the F. A. D.'s have continued to strive toward their goal of Christian womanhood by taking active part in Campus life. They nearly turned into icicles giving their serenade, but they lived through it and went on to have a successful year.

Kianu loyalty and ideals have grown deeper year by year since 1927, when the club was chartered. The spirit of Kianu is individualism, but this spirit is subordinate to the fellowship and friendship which unite its members. Those of the sisterhood of Chi Alpha Nu, both past and present, have pledged themselves to uphold the standards and honors set by their founders.

KONA

The Konas became four years old last December. Still very close to the charter members the girls in the club have tried to hold high those ideals which the first Konas wished to establish. All of fifty-one members have worked hard and had lots of fun this year under the wonderful leadership of their president, Hannah Weir. Mrs. Wilbur Schnitker has been the club adviser.

A lot went on during this first peace-time year, and from the memories of Hansel and Gretel and the gingerbread men at the Freshman Tea, or the cold, cold night they serenaded, to the sadness, yet pride, with which they saw their seniors prepare to graduate, there has been much this year for the Konas to remember always.

The Wawyin Club celebrated its twentieth anniversary this year at Homecoming. Many alumni and founders of the club returned and it was indeed an enjoyable time for all who were here. All through these years Phi Beta Psi has meant much to the loyal Wawyins. Friendship, fellowship, and companionship receive a prominent place in the lives of those who live under the three-cornered crest.

Under the leadership of Mary Kelso, the Wawyins honored the ideals advanced by their founders. Miss Anna J. Klosser was the club adviser.

The purpose of the Men's Interclub Council is to promote good-will and social harmony among the men's clubs. The main activity of the council is setting up the rushing rules and deciding when rushing periods shall take place. The problems of the separate groups are considered and in the light of the discussions which have been held, the rules are set so that the greatest good for the greatest number can be had.

The Women's Interclub Council is composed of a sophomore, junior, and senior representative from each of the five women's social clubs. The Dean of Women is an ex-officio member of the Council. Its purpose is to promote goodwill and social harmony among the clubs and to make and enforce rules and procedures in regard to rushing. The group meets once a month at a dinner meeting at the different houses. The Council's most important work of this year was revising the rushing rules because of the increased number of girls in the freshman class. The results of this revision may be judged from the fact that Miss Orr called this spring rushing season "the most successful one in years."
